

Deciduous Trees

1. What is a deciduous Tree? _____

2. Draw the shape of a cherry leaf.

3. Describe the bark of a mature cherry tree. _____

4. What nickname is given to the cherry tree because of its bark? _____

5. Describe the shape of an elm tree: _____

6. What disease has killed elms across America? _____

7. Draw the shape of an elm leaf:

8. Describe the elm leaf: _____

9. What nickname is given to the elm tree? _____

10. What insect kills green ash? _____

11. Draw the shape of a green ash leaf:

12. What is a compound leaf? _____

13. Describe the bark of a green ash: _____

14. In Fall: Bur oaks turn _____ White oaks turn _____

Draw the shape of a bur oak leaf

Draw the shape of a white oak leaf

14. What is the Big Woods? _____

15. What animals eat acorns? _____

16. What disease do oaks get? _____

17. What habitat do cottonwoods grow in? _____

18 Why do cottonwoods rustle in the wind? _____

19. Why are cottonwoods called whisper trees? _____

20. How did cottonwoods get their name? _____

Draw a cottonwood leaf

Draw a quaking aspen leaf

21. What is special about the bark of a quaking aspen? _____

22. How do aspen trees spread? _____

23. What are three animals that use aspen? _____

24. What country has made the sugar maple its national symbol? _____

25. How much of the "Big Woods" remains in Minnesota today? _____

26. Why are maple seeds called helicopters? _____

27. What are three things maples are used for? _____

28. How much maple sap does it take to make a gallon of syrup? _____

Draw a sugar maple leaf

Draw a silver maple leaf

29. What habitat are silver maples found in? _____

30. How did silver maples get their name? _____

31. What type of habitat are willows found in? _____

32. What is one way that new willow plants get started? _____

33. What are two ways that humans use willows? _____

34. Why is the black willow called the aspirin tree? _____

Draw willow leaf

Draw a basswood leaf

35. Why is the basswood called the "tree that never dies"? _____

36. Why is the basswood called the "toilet paper tree"? _____

37. What are basswood flowers used for? _____